

Indirect Rule in British Africa (Tarikh Vol. 3 No. 3)

Tarikh is produced twice each year. It is a journal of African history for use in schools, colleges and universities. New syllabuses in African history oare now in use or in preparation all over Africa though much of the most recent historical research is only available in advanced and expensive texts. Tarikh is an attempt to present some of this material in a readable and easily understood form for school and higher certificate candidates and first year university students.
